

Jim Stritzinger

Director, Broadband Office
SC Office of Regulatory Staff

As part of the SC Office of Regulatory Staff, Mr. Stritzinger now serves as Director of the Broadband Office.

Prior to joining ORS, Jim was the Founder and President a consulting firm that specialized in the deployment of high-speed Internet in rural communities. He has been featured on NPR Marketplace Tech, was selected to speak at the IBM Think 2019 Conference and invited to present to the US House Rural Broadband Task Force by Congressman James E. Clyburn. In addition, Jim's broadband mapping methodology was selected for publication in the Esri® Map Book (Vol 36, 2021).

Mr. Stritzinger is a Fellow in the Aspen Global Leadership Network and was inducted to the NC State University (NCSU) Electrical and Computer Engineering Alumni Hall of Fame in 2015. He holds a BS Electrical Engineering from NCSU, a Master of Health Information Technology from the University of South Carolina and is a Senior Member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE).
