

USSYP Recognition PROGRAM HONOREES

Selected U.S. Senate Youth delegates attend Washington Week - an intensive week of unparalleled educational activities designed to deepen the student's understanding of the federal government and give them direct access to those who lead it. Delegates receive a $10,000 undergraduate college scholarship following participation in Washington Week through the Hearst Foundation.

About Excellence Recognition Programs

USSYP Program Purpose

EDUCATE FUTURE LEADERS

The U.S. Senate Youth Program, established in 1962 by U.S. Senate Resolution, is an esteemed educational initiative offering high school juniors and seniors an opportunity to gain firsthand knowledge of the American political process. Every year, two students from each state are selected as delegates and participate in Washington Week.

USSYP Verification Forms

APPLICATION REQUIREMENT

Students are responsible for obtaining signatures from their principal, counselor, and parent/guardian. Verification forms are found on the USSYP webpage at www.gadoe.org/USSYP.

USSYP Student Essays

APPLICATION REQUIREMENT

Essays 1 and 2 are limited to a 250-word maximum with a 100-word minimum requirement. The persuasive essay has a 500-word maximum with a 200-word minimum requirement.

1. Describe your current elected or appointed student leadership position. What impact has your role had on your school or community? In what ways has your experience as a student leader cultivated a strong sense of civic responsibility?
2. Describe your involvement in civic community service initiatives or programs outside of your school. Share ways in which you think being chosen for the U.S. Senate Youth Program will help you explore some of the most important questions you have about the challenges facing the country.
3. Submit a persuasive essay researched and written on a topic of social significance related to a contemporary state, national, or world event. Select a topic important to you, take a stand, relate its importance to you, and defend your position. The essay will be judged on organization, ideas and content, evidence of personalization, and writing conventions including citation of sources.
