

THE MASTER'S UNIVERSITY

Announcements & Events

The Master's Chorale Concert | Feb. 24

This is the annual on-campus Chorale concert, and it's a concert you won't want to miss. It will take place in TMU's Music Recital Hall starting at 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 24. Chorale will be performing much of its repertoire, and you will get to hear pieces they will be touring with all over Israel and Italy in just a few months. This is one of our most popular concerts, so get your tickets early here.

Creation Summit | Feb. 25

Registration is now open for our Creation Summit. Please join us as we hear from Dr. Andrew Snelling, Dr. Steve Gollmer, and Dr. Matthew McLain on the topic, "After the Flood." We will also be featuring a sneak peek of the movie "Mountains After the Flood," a sequel to "Is Genesis History," focusing on the rise of mountains in North America as the result of a post-flood world. The movie will be shown on Friday, Feb. 24, at 7 p.m. in EHC 100, and the Creation Summit begins on Saturday, Feb. 25, at 10 a.m. in MRH. Find the conference schedule and get tickets here.

'Father of the Bride' Tickets

Tickets are on sale for TMU Theatre Arts' production of "Father of the Bride." There will be 8 p.m. shows on March 24-25 and 31, as well as on April 1. There will also be 2 p.m. shows on March 25 and April 1. Tickets can be purchased online or by calling 661-362-2255.

Care of Souls Conference & Promo Video

As we draw nearer to the Care of Souls Conference on June 7-9, Dr. John Street shares the critical importance of understanding sin, human nature, and the conscience from a biblical perspective in this video. More information about the conference is available at careofsoulsconference.org.

Math3ma Symposium | June 9-10

Spread the word! On June 9 and 10, TMU is hosting the Math3ma Symposium, which invites graduate students, postdoctoral scholars, and professionals in the sciences throughout academia, industry, and government for a time of fellowship and encouragement as they pursue fidelity to Christ and Scripture in their scientific vocations. We hope you'll extend the invitation to any believing friends, colleagues, and family members with vocations in STEM. For more information and to register, visit this page.

President's Scholarship Jump-Starts Jacob Kim's TMU Journey

Jacob Kim was maturing in his faith, diligent in his work, and had a high appreciation for Christian education. The only thing holding him back from attending TMU was the question of whether or not he'd be able to afford it. Read his story here.

TMU Men's Volleyball Earns NAIA No. 1 Ranking

The Master's University men's volleyball team was ranked No. 1 in the country in the NAIA men's volleyball poll released last week. This is the first time in program history that the Mustangs have been ranked No. 1. Find details in last week's news post.

Practicing Christ-Honoring Science in an Age of Naturalism

Ahead of our upcoming Creation Summit, be sure to read Dr. Ross Anderson's article explaining how we seek to honor Christ in the way we teach and practice science.
