

UTSA Mellon Humanities Pathways Program

THE UTSA MEXICO CENTER SEEKS UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS FROM UNDERREPRESENTED AND OTHER BACKGROUNDS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE 2023-2024 COHORT OF THE UTSA MELLON HUMANITIES PATHWAYS PROGRAM.

STUDENTS ACCEPTED AS A FELLOW WILL RECEIVE AN INTRODUCTION TO HUMANITIES RESEARCH METHODS, NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES WITH UTSA FACULTY AND STAFF, PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND MENTORING THAT LEADS TO GRADUATE STUDY IN THE HUMANITIES.

Requirements

Applicants Must

- Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale)
- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Be a junior enrolled in a UTSA bachelor's program in the humanities (broadly defined)
- Demonstrate potential and express interest in pursuing a graduate degree in the humanities

Benefits

Fellows Will

- Attend regular workshops to enhance oral and written communication skills, develop research skills, and prepare for graduate school
- Conduct research with a UTSA faculty member
- Participate in spring and summer workshops to prepare graduate applications
- Prepare and take the Graduate Record Examination (GRE)
- Have the opportunity to publish research and present at professional conferences
- Receive a stipend to support studies during the cohort

Mellon Fellows Alumni

UTSA Mellon Humanities Pathways alumni continue their graduate studies at many institutions including Baylor University, Florida State University, Pennsylvania State University, St. Mary's University of Minnesota, Texas A&M, The New School (NYC), UC Irvine, University of Maryland at College Park, University of North Texas, University of Pittsburgh, University of Texas at Austin, University of South Carolina, University of Texas- Health Science Center, University of Arizona, UTSA, Southern Methodist University, and Princeton University

Now Accepting Applications

How to Apply

Upon submitting this application, please submit the following to Mexico.Center@utsa.edu

- Resume
- Transcript
- Personal Narrative
- Two Recommendations (please provide name and contact only)

Scan the QR Code for application.

Submit all documents to Sophia.Ortiz@utsa.edu and
Mexico.Center@utsa.edu

Twitter: @Mexico_Center
Instagram: @utsamexicocenter
Facebook: UTSA Mexico Center