Re: More work to do

With 4 weeks to go in the Republican Primary race, retired Brigadier General Don Bolduc remains the GOP front-runner with a double-digit lead over his nearest opponent. The winner will go on to face Senator Maggie Hassan, whose 100% voting record with President Biden has hurt Granite State families.

General Bolduc has completed nearly 40 town halls across the Granite State on his American Strength tour and the message voters have for the career politicians and the establishment has been loud and resounding; we're fed up and fired up. Bolduc's common-sense messaging is resonating across New Hampshire, and he'll proudly form the Hell No caucus in Washington to bring back fiscal sanity in our country.

New Hampshire will play a pivotal role in the Republican effort to take back the US Senate and Bolduc is poised to emerge from the September 13th primary in strong position to retire Maggie Hassan.

- General Bolduc is the clear favorite among GOP voters. This week's St. Anselm College Survey Center Poll shows Bolduc leading the field by a double-digit margin

- General Bolduc's ballot lead holds up across the spectrum of GOP voters, building a broad coalition of support for Bolduc's American Strength agenda.

If the Republican primary election for the US Senate were held today, for which of the below candidates would you vote? (GOP ID Only)
		Bolduc	Morse	Smith	Fenton	Mansharamani	Someone Else	Unsure
Ideology	Very Conservative	41%	14%	4%	1%	1%	3%	36%
	Somewhat Conservative	34%	19%	5%	4%	2%	2%	35%
	Moderate	13%	9%	5%	10%	3%	1%	59%
	Somewhat Liberal	15%	23%	4%	8%	4%	8%	38%

- Maggie Hassan's standing with voters in New Hampshire continues to erode. A staggering 53% of Granite Staters say it's time to give someone new a chance. A stunning rebuke of a career politician who has been in elective office nearly two decades.

Do you think Senator Maggie Hassan has done a good enough job to deserve re-election, or is it time to give someone new a chance?
	Frequency	Percent
Deserves Re-election	739	39
Someone New	1003	53
Unsure	156	8
Total	1898	100

- Joe Biden's continues to be an anchor to Maggie Hassan. 57% of New Hampshire voters disapprove of the job the President is doing and a stunning 68% of New Hampshire voters believe our country is on the wrong track. Joe Biden's five decades of good will with voters has collapsed.
