[For Educators] Dr. Kathie Elliott Education Leadership Scholarship: Dr. Kathie Elliott spent 33 years in Cobb County. Her experience includes elementary teacher, along with principalships at Eastside Elementary, Varner Elementary and Kennesaw Elementary. She also spent some time working in Human Resources prior to her principalships. After retiring, she continued her efforts with developing educators. Kathie worked with Berry College as a coach to graduate students seeking their Educational Leadership degree. She also supervised student teachers through Kennesaw State University.

This scholarship was established in her honor to continue the work she loved. Applicants already holding a teaching degree, who are interested in pursuing a Masters degree to help them advance into educational leadership should apply for this scholarship. Each scholarship awarded will be $1,000 and will go towards tuition.

Applications are due April 22, 2022 and the winner will be notified by June 1, 2022.
