

BOUND AND LEFT FOR DEAD IN A DUMPSTER

REWARD

FOR FINDING THOSE RESPONSIBLE

UP TO $5,000

for tips leading to a cruelty conviction stemming from the March 31 discovery of a dog bound by the legs with tape inside a bucket in a dumpster outside Ollie's Bargain Outlet in Pulaski. The dog is a 4-year-old tan Chihuahua mix with a white snout. The bucket is blue with a white lid and text that reads, "Pioneer Athletics," and is believed to have originally contained field marking paint.

Anyone with pertinent information should call Detective Rick Riddle with the Pulaski Police Department at 540-994-8609.

PETA